We may also hold personal data about you from third parties, such as references supplied by former employers, information provided during the completion of our pre-employment checks (where applicable), your application to your training centre, and from the Disclosure & Barring Service, in order to comply with our legal obligations and statutory guidance.

2. Why we collect and use this information

The purpose of collecting and processing this data is to help us recruit staff and run the school efficiently, including to:

- Enable you to be paid and other benefits be provided (where applicable)
- Fulfil our legal obligations towards safeguarding pupils

- Support effective performance management and appraisal and development of trainees
- Provide feedback to your training centre and awarding body
- Provide references where requested
- Equalities monitoring and reporting
- to assess the quality of our services
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing

3. The lawful basis on which we use this information

Our lawful basis for collecting and processing trainee information is defined under Article 6, and the following sub-paragraphs in the GDPR apply:

- (a) Data subject gives consent for one or more specific purposes.
- (c) Processing is necessary to comply with the legal obligations of the controller.
- (e) Processing is necessary for tasks in the public interest or exercise of authority vested in the controller (the provision of education).

Our lawful basis for collecting and processing your information is also further defined under Article 9, in that some of the information we process is deemed to be sensitive, or special, information and the following sub-paragraphs in the GDPR apply:

- (a) The data subject has given explicit consent.
- (b) It is necessary to fulfill the obligations of controller or of data subject.
- (c) It is necessary to protect the vital interests of the data subject.
- (d) Processing is carried out by a foundation or not-for-profit organisation (includes religious, political or philosophical organisations and trade unions)

A full breakdown of the information we collect on trainees can be found in our Data Audit & Record of Data Collection & Processing Document which is available at the school.

Where we have obtained consent to use trainee members personal data, this consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent, and explain how consent can be withdrawn. Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using your personal data overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify our use of this data.

4. Collecting trainee information

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain your information to us or if you have a choice in this. Where we have obtained consent to use your personal data, this consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent, and explain how consent can be withdrawn.

5. Storing your data

We create and maintain a file for each trainee. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your placement with us.

Once your employment with us has ended, we will retain this file and delete the information in it in accordance with our retention policy.

Please refer to our Data Storage and Retention Policy which is available at the school for further information.

We have data protection policies and procedures in place, including strong organisational and technical measures, which are regularly reviewed. Further information can be found on our website.

6. Who we share information with

We routinely share staff information with appropriate third parties, including:

- Your training centre
- Your awarding body
- Our local authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding concerns and information relating to certain staffing matters
- The Department for Education
- Educators and examining bodies
- Ofsted
- Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for
- Central and local government
- Professional advisers and consultants – for us to develop our service to best provide our public service
- Police forces, courts, tribunals
- Employment and recruitment agencies
- Future employers

Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law.

7. Why we share your information

We do not share information about you with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share information with your training provider in order to provide you with the best possible support.

8. Data collection requirements:

Our data collection requirements relate to our contractual obligations with the training centres with which we work. Further details are available on request.

9. Requesting access to your personal data and your Data Protection Rights

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about them that we hold, through a Subject Access Request.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you or your child
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

Individuals also have the right for their personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

If you would like to make a request please contact our data protection officer Mrs Janice Cameron who may be contacted at janice.cameron@london.anglican.org.

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations

10. Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.

To make a complaint, please contact our data protection officer: Mrs Janice Cameron who may be contacted at janice.cameron@london.anglican.org.

Alternatively, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:
